Hi Rita,

I have arranged for a Re-quote to be done for your meeting. But to be honest I don't think it will have any relevance due to the way oil prices are fluctuating and affecting Tarmac prices. When I met with Caroline we spoke about our MUSA concept and appealing to a wider demographic. I will be demonstrating this concept at the open evening on the 23rd July. It has proved very popular around the country and grabs funding due to its wider appeal. I think the best way forward would be to send you the quote as a guideline but then when the funding is in place we will tighten it up and tailor it to the funding budget. Is that okay?

We will email you the quotation as soon as it's done.

Kind Regards,

Neil Pigdon
